Unrepresented by a ppr oc he

After six editions of a ppr oc he, Emilia Genuardi today wishes to make benefit from the ecosystem of the salon, woven over the years, to artists not represented in galleries. She announces the opening of a new format : Unrepresented by a ppr oc he.

An independent event around photographic experimentation dedicated to artists not represented in galleries.

Always with a view to supporting creation, this new format will place collectors at the heart of the project, who will sponsor the artists in the development of the solo shows.

This new event will take place from March 30 to April 2, 2023 (location to be confirmed).
